Approved For Release 2003/08/21 CIA-RDP80R01731R002300040028-7

Executive Registry
74-4819

13 September 1974

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Cuban Exile

	I saw a Cuban exile at t	the
25X1
	. We spoke alone in Spanish.
	He recounted his past as an opponent of both Castro and military regimes (presumably Batista's) in Cuba. He said that after leaving Cuba he had travelled a great deal around Latin America drumming up support for a military effort by Cuban exiles against the Castro regime. He indicated that he had had close relations with	١.
25X1	on this subject and both h
ſ	both had withdrawn their support around February 1973. The	w
25X1	refused to receive him further and the had to
20/(1		ıu
25X1	him that the whole matter was in suspense. Since then he had heard nothing further and Jose de la Torriente, the leader of the military side of the Cuban exile movement, had been mysterious killed in Miami. I asked if he had any indication who killed Torriente and he said that he did not but deduced that Torriente's death would mostly benefit Castro and presumed the latter had directed Torriente's execution.	usly had
25X1	then said that he had found a good home in the U and that there was a grave development taking place in the Cub exile community in the U.S. which concerned him very much. was that a group of Cubans advocating violence and direct actions against gaining control of the Cuban community in the U States and that they feared that the U.S. would go along with litthe sanctions against Castro's Cuba and might even make a deswith it. If this happened, he was fearful that the Cubans in the U.S. might resort to violence and breaking American laws. The would greatly deplore as he was most grateful for the second	This on nited fting al

E 2 IMPDET CL BY 040276

Approved For Release 2003/08/21 CIA-RDP80R01731R002300040028-7

	increasingly convinced that the Utowards rapprochement with Cub Kissinger for this. Already they Communists.	However, the Cuban community was J.S. was about to make some move a and would certainly blame Dr. were saying he was soft on
25X1	I told that I hoped these counsels of violence would not be heard. These Cubans had been made welcome in the United States and if anyone told him Dr. Kissinger was soft on Communists, I could tell him from personal knowledge that this was definitely not true.
25X1	It was not totally clear to me whether was connecting the Cuban frustration and growing propensity for violence with Dr. Kissinger's person. In any case, he thanked me for my reassurance that Dr. Kissinger was not soft on anyone and left.
	25X1
		Vernon A. Walters Lieutenant General, USA
		Director of Central Intelligence
	± ,

Next 5 Page(s) In Document Exempt